Matz to Host Webinar Open to Entire Credit Union Industry

Register Now and Save the Date: Nov. 9 at 3 p.m. EST

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (Oct. 17, 2011) – National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) Board Chairman Debbie Matz has scheduled her third town hall webinar of 2011, open to the entire credit union industry: Wednesday, Nov. 9 at 3 p.m. EST.

“I remain committed to providing transparency about NCUA initiatives and continuing an open dialog with credit union stakeholders,” said Chairman Matz. “This free webinar will feature updates on the resolution of the corporate credit union system, the health of the Share Insurance Fund, the progress of NCUA’s Regulatory Modernization Initiative, and an outlook toward the 2012 budget. I encourage credit union professionals and volunteers to participate in these important discussions.”

During the live webinar, participants will be able to type in questions about any topic of interest.

The webinar will be open to all, then archived on NCUA’s website approximately two weeks after the event for those who could not participate.

NCUA is the independent federal agency created by the U.S. Congress to regulate, charter and supervise federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of more than 91 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
